The Aspex for Children—Aspex 1919 One hundred twenty-six best-loved fables of Aspex

Pinocchio, the Tale of a Puppet Carlo Collodi 2011-02-12 Pinocchio, The Tale of a Puppet follows the adventures of a wooden puppet who dreams of becoming a real boy. He is a jovial fellow with a penchant for mischief, and his adventures are a perfect blend of humor and moral lessons. The story is a classic, and it has been translated into over fifty languages. The book contains a mix of simple and more complex characters, all with their own unique moral values. The Aspex for Children collection features a variety of stories that can be enjoyed by readers of all ages.

Academy for Health Superheroes Dr. Agnesdda Chidbinska and David W. Evans 2017-10-18 Agnes is a young girl with a special gift: she is able to feel when others need help. Together with her friends, Agnes creates the Academy for Health Superheroes, where she teaches humans, animals, organs, and bad characters how to make their bodies healthier and happier. This book is a perfect introduction to health and wellness for young readers.

The Giving Tree Shel Silverstein 2014-10-10 As The Giving Tree turns fifty, this timeless classic is available for the first time ever in ebook format. This digital edition allows young readers and lifers to continue the legacy and love of a classic that will now reach an even wider audience. Never before have Silverstein’s children’s books appeared in a format other than hardcover. Since it was first published fifty years ago, Silverstein’s poignant picture book for readers of all ages has offered a interpretation of the gift of giving and a sense of acceptance of one’s lot in life. In The Giving Tree, Silverstein’s incomparable genius as a storytelling child’s book author and illustrator began with LaRoo, the Radio, who shoosh. His book is a classic, and it has been translated into over fifty languages. The book contains a mix of simple and more complex characters, all with their own unique moral values. The Aspex for Children collection features a variety of stories that can be enjoyed by readers of all ages.

The Tortoise and the Hare—Robert Piumini 2011-01-01 A proud hare brags that he is the fastest animal in the world, and when a tortoise challenges him to a race, the hare is confident that he will win.

The Town Mouse and the Country Mouse—Ezra Jack 2012 This series introduces young readers to the captivating world of classic tall tales with easy-to-read storylines. These timeless stories have been updated with a contemporary feel that appeals to today’s reader.

Matilda—Roald Dahl 2010-13-0 Now a musical! Matilda is a sweet, exceptional young girl, but her parents think she’s just a nuisance. She expects school to be different but there she has to face Miss Trunchbull, a menacing, kid-hating headmistress. When Matilda is attacked by the Trunchbull she suddenly discovers she has a remarkable power with which to fight back. It’ll take a superhuman genius to give Miss Trunchbull what she deserves and Matilda may just be the one to do it! Here is Roald Dahl’s original novel of a little girl with a big imagination.

The Giving Tree—Shel Silverstein 2014-10-10 As The Giving Tree turns fifty, this timeless classic is available for the first time ever in ebook format. This digital edition allows young readers and lifers to continue the legacy and love of a classic that will now reach an even wider audience. Never before have Silverstein’s children’s books appeared in a format other than hardcover. Since it was first published fifty years ago, Silverstein’s poignant picture book for readers of all ages has offered a interpretation of the gift of giving and a sense of acceptance of one’s lot in life. In The Giving Tree, Silverstein’s incomparable genius as a storytelling child’s book author and illustrator began with LaRoo, the Radio, who shoosh. His book is a classic, and it has been translated into over fifty languages. The book contains a mix of simple and more complex characters, all with their own unique moral values. The Aspex for Children collection features a variety of stories that can be enjoyed by readers of all ages.

The Tortoise and the Hare—Robert Piumini 2011-01-01 A proud hare brags that he is the fastest animal in the world, and when a tortoise challenges him to a race, the hare is confident that he will win.

The Town Mouse and the Country Mouse—Ezra Jack 2012 This series introduces young readers to the captivating world of classic tall tales with easy-to-read storylines. These timeless stories have been updated with a contemporary feel that appeals to today’s reader.

Matilda—Roald Dahl 2010-13-0 Now a musical! Matilda is a sweet, exceptional young girl, but her parents think she’s just a nuisance. She expects school to be different but there she has to face Miss Trunchbull, a menacing, kid-hating headmistress. When Matilda is attacked by the Trunchbull she suddenly discovers she has a remarkable power with which to fight back. It’ll take a superhuman genius to give Miss Trunchbull what she deserves and Matilda may just be the one to do it! Here is Roald Dahl’s original novel of a little girl with a big imagination.

The Giving Tree—Shel Silverstein 2014-10-10 As The Giving Tree turns fifty, this timeless classic is available for the first time ever in ebook format. This digital edition allows young readers and lifers to continue the legacy and love of a classic that will now reach an even wider audience. Never before have Silverstein’s children’s books appeared in a format other than hardcover. Since it was first published fifty years ago, Silverstein’s poignant picture book for readers of all ages has offered a interpretation of the gift of giving and a sense of acceptance of one’s lot in life. In The Giving Tree, Silverstein’s incomparable genius as a storytelling child’s book author and illustrator began with LaRoo, the Radio, who shoosh. His book is a classic, and it has been translated into over fifty languages. The book contains a mix of simple and more complex characters, all with their own unique moral values. The Aspex for Children collection features a variety of stories that can be enjoyed by readers of all ages.